Yes, I received the fixture count. It is really low. I can't imagine the difference between this restaurant use and the previous general store use are all that different. We will be sending out the Ability to Serve Determination shortly.

Thanks,

Hi Robert,

Per our conversation on the phone, here are the fixtures counts for the change of use to a restaurant. I also attached the estimated construction timeline, just in case it helps out at all.

Thanks,
Jordan
