

Diamond Cove Summer Day Camp is offered to the children and grandchildren of homeowners and renters in Kindergarten thru 6th grade. It is a thematically based program that meets from 9:00am-12:00pm on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings. DCSDC runs for five weeks and starts the first Tuesday after the 4th of July. The director, an accredited teacher, and her assistant deliver the program to a maximum of 16 children. Diamond Cove offers a rich environment for exploration, learning and fun. Children hike, play games, go on scavenger hunts, make crafts, share songs and poetry and learn about their island home.
